

General voting information

Do you have to vote?

Yes – You must vote in State Government elections.

Every Australian person over 18 years of age must enrol to vote.

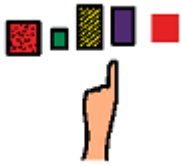

If you do NOT vote, you could be fined some money.

If you do not vote you will be sent a letter.

You will be asked why you did not vote.

You may have to pay a fine.

Why should I vote?

Voting means you

- have your say
- help to choose who is representing you.

Voting is your right.

Voting gives you power.

How do I vote in State government elections?

The next Victorian Government election is on Saturday, 25 November 2006.

Election day will be advertised in newspapers, television and radio.

Go to a Voting Centre on election day.

How do I find out about my Voting Centre?

Look in the newspaper on Friday, 24 November 2006. It will show you where all the voting centres are.

Go to the Victorian Electoral Commission website.

The website is www.vec.vic.gov.au

Some people cannot vote on election day.

If you cannot vote on election day you can vote before election day.

You can vote at a Voting Centre.

You can vote by post.

You must contact the Victorian Electoral Commission before election day to tell them you can't vote on election day.

Telephone: 13 18 32

Website: www.vec.vic.gov.au