

Election Staff Positions

There are two kinds of election roles:

Election Casuals

- Work before, on and after election day
- Work in election offices, early voting centres, mobile voting centres, centralised operations and count centres
- Are paid an hourly rate.

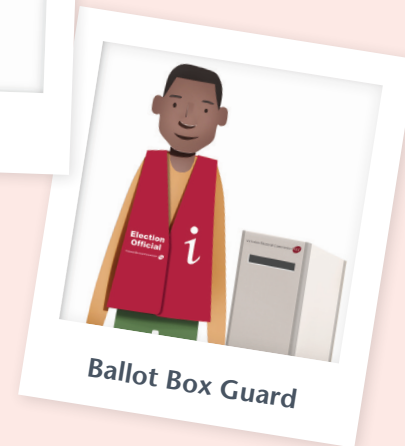

Election Casual roles include:

Election Officials

- Work in voting centres on election day
- Make up more than half of the total election workforce
- Are paid a package amount.

Election Official roles include:

Register your interest: vec.vic.gov.au/workatelections

For a full list of election roles including pay rates and duty statements please see the Employment Guide for Election Casuals and Officials.