

Declaration of no obligation to submit 2024-25 financial year annual return - Third-party campaigner

Section 217K of the Electoral Act 2002 (Vic) (Electoral Act) requires the registered agent of third-party campaigners to submit a financial year annual return to the Victorian Electoral Commission (VEC).

You are a third-party campaigner if you or your organisation is not:

- a registered political party (RPP)
- a candidate at an election, a group or an elected member
- an associated entity
- a nominated entity of a registered political party and you receive political donations or incur political expenditure in excess of the general cap in a financial year.

The general cap for the 2024-25 financial year is $4,850.

Definitions of political donations, political expenditure and third-party campaigners are provided in section 206(1) of the Electoral Act.

Third-party campaigners need to submit an annual return to the VEC. If you are not a third-party campaigner for the 2024-25 financial year, submit the declaration below.
