

I wish to support that option A is endorsed.

This is due to the history of having one Boroondara Councillor abstain from supporting his constituents and the other Councillors supporting negative developments to be endorsed outside their constituents areas. Having more than one Councillor elected per defined boundary would support less perceived inappropriate development as the elected Councillors are responsible for more than one area.

Noelene OKeefe

