

I am a resident of Boroondara and after perusing the various options relating to the proposed multi councillor ward structure and wish to support the adoption of Option A.

My principal reason for doing so is that it provides more rational, effective and more diverse representation for each of the wards under the proposed configuration.

The other proposals constitute little more than limited adjustment to the current unsatisfactory situation