Hello,

I would like to express my opinion that the new ward structure should separate the suburb of Dandenong and the new estates of Keysborough. These areas are very different socio economically.

Dandenong is increasingly urban and generally low socio-economic area with a large rental population and a place of first settlement of new migrants.

Keysborough South is middle income, suburban and a largely owner occupier area. Keysborough South would be better in a ward with the older part of Keysborough.

As a generalisation, Dandenong residents rarely visit Keysborough and vice versa. They share different needs and have different issues.

Thank you.

Regards,

Nataly Westcott
