Strong support for Option A for the reasons mentioned in the VEC report. In particular option A unites Dandenong north and in doing so means that there is one fewer community that the Red Gum councillors need to attend to. Option B seems rather chaotic in its boundaries- it brings keysborough south into Noble Park, but at the cost of splitting various other communities - Dandenong North, and Noble Park.